

REPORT ON BUILDING ARCHEOLOGY

AT THE

NATHANIEL PARSONS
HOUSE

NORTHAMPTON, MASSACHUSETTS

FOR

HISTORIC NORTHAMPTON
PAMELA TOMA
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

AND

THE INSTITUTE FOR MUSEUM SERVICES (IMS)

PREPARED BY

GREGORY CLANCEY
ARCHITECTURAL CONSERVATOR
SOCIETY FOR THE PRESERVATION OF NEW ENGLAND ANTIQUITIES

AND

JOHN LEEKE
PRESERVATION CONSULTANT
IN PRIVATE PRACTICE

1992

---

TABLE OF CONTENTS

I. DESCRIPTION AND SUMMARY OF FINDINGS

II. THE ARCHEOLOGY OF THE EXTERIOR

- Excavation EXT-S
- Excavation EXT-W1
- Excavation EXT-E
- Excavation EXT-W2
- Excavation 210-S
- The Cellar and the First Floor Frame
- Second Floor Framing
- The Chimney
- The Attic Floor Frame and Roof Structure

III: THE ARCHEOLOGY OF THE INTERIOR

- Room 102
- Room 112
- Room 101/201
- Room 111
- Room 109
- Room 110
- Room 210
- Room 202/203

IV: INTERPRETIVE PLANNING

---

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Messrs. Clancey and Leeke were assisted in preparing this report by James Lee, Architectural Technician, SPNEA Conservation Center; Anne Petrullo, Office Coordinator of Architecture, SPNEA Conservation Center; Phyllis Leeke of Mr. Leeke's office; and Jennifer -----.

Mr. Richard Nylander of SPNEA provided valuable help in examining and dating fragments of historic wallpaper.

Dr. Abbott Lowell Cummings and Mr. William Flynt (of Historic Deerfield) consulted with us on-site and provided much valuable advice and encouragement.

We would also like to thank the staff, trustees, and friends of Historic Northampton, who showed us every courtesy and aid during the course of the project, especially Ms. Pamela Toma, Executive Director; Ms. Lynne Bassett, Curator of Collections; Ms. Terri Korpita, Secretary; and Mr. Jim Parsons, a former trustee.